A LITTLE BIT OF LEG WORK GOES A LONG WAY FOR TRAVEL ADVANTAGE NETWORK AND MENTAL HEALTH CHARITY

MILLERSVILLE, Md. – Travel Advantage Network employees did a little leg work one recent mellow spring morning to support the National Alliance for Research on Schizophrenia and Depression. In fact, they did two-and-a-half kilometers of it.

Nine employees raised more than $1,653 to support the charity by completing a 2.5K sponsored walk at Kinder Farm Park in Millersville, Md.

“It was beautiful. It was in the upper 60s. Absolutely perfect,” says Marie Dougherty, TAN’s director of Sales and event co-organizer. “I enjoyed the interaction with the other walkers. It was a bonding experience.”

Dougherty, along with co-organizer and sister Andrea Watkins, also raffled Orioles Fan Fest tickets within the company, raising an additional $181 for a total of $1,834.

“It’s great to see TAN employees spend time together outside work raising funds for such a worthy cause,” says company president Brad Callahan. Each month, TAN employees rally behind a chosen charity and raise funds to support it. In 2008, TAN employees donated more than $10,000 to charities like the Muscular Dystrophy Association, National Alopecia Areata Foundation and The MISS Foundation.
